

(Teacher may read questions and answer choices if needed)

1)	 What is choking? a) Choking occurs when something gets stuck in the throat/trachea and the person can no longer breathe. b) Choking occurs when someone can no longer speak to you. c) Choking occurs when someone takes too big a bite of a hot dog.
2)	The Maneuver® is the easiest method for saving a choking victim. Choose the correct spelling? a) Himelick b) Heimlick c) Hindlich d) Heimlich
3)	Choking can be fatal. a) True b) False
4)	These parts of the body are all involved when someone chokes. a) Throat or Trachea b) Vocal Cords c) Stomach d) Lungs e) Heart
5)	 How do you know if someone is choking? a) Their fingernails and lips may be turning blue. b) They cannot cough very hard, if at all. c) They cannot speak. d) They may be clutching their throat. e) None of the above 	(OVER)
	Name	Grade

(Teacher may read questions and answer choices if needed)

5)	If you think someone is choking what is the first thing you should do? a) Shout for help and tell someone to call 911. b) Immediately begin the Heimlich Maneuver. c) Ask the person if they are choking.
7)	Place the Heimlich Maneuver® steps in the correct order (number from 1 to 4):
	Make a fist with the thumb side of your hand touching just above the person's belly button. Wrap your other hand on top of your fist.
	Repeat thrusting motions until the object is cleared and dislodged from the throat.
	Position yourself behind the person who is in trouble and place your arms around their waist. They might be sitting or standing at the time.
	Thrust your fist upward and inward into the upper stomach area. This motion forces ai out your windpipe to dislodge the obstructing object.
3)	The Heimlich Maneuver® can be performed on yourself by positioning yourself behind a chair or against the edge of a table. a) True b) False
∌)	If a person falls unconscious while choking you can still unblock the airway by using the Heimlich Maneuver®. a) True b) False
10)	Once the Heimlich Maneuver® has been performed and the victim can breathe, they should always go to see their doctor right away to be sure they haven't damaged their throat. a) True b) False	